DIRECTOR'S LETTER JULY 2024

We are Proud

Children feel a sense of pride when they achieve a goal or receive recognition for a job well done. Be sure to take notice of your children's special moments and accomplishments. Praising a child's efforts helps them to think positively about themselves and others. When children take pride in themselves, they can extend that pride to include groups that they belong to, such as their families, classrooms and their community

SUGGESTED BOOKS

I'm Gonna Like Me, Jamie Lee Curtis
The Big Brag, Dr. Seuss
Zero, Kathryn Otoshi
